NOTICE.

Notice of Application for License to Sell Spirituous, Vinous, Fermented and Malt Liquors.
Notice is hereby given that John Wilson has made application to the board of county commissioners of Crow Wing county, for a license to sell spirituous, vinous, fermented and malt liquors from the first day of April, A. D. 1888, for one year from date of issuance of license, in compliance with existing state laws, such license to be sold in a building owned by himself in the village of Grand River, county of Cass state of Minnesota.
The said application will be heard and action thereon taken by the board of county commissioners, at the county auditor's office in Brainerd, on April 3rd, 1888.
Dated Brainerd, Minnesota, March 18th, A. D.
1888.
LOUIS TACHE,
County Auditor.

WHERE was Merriam when the farmers were in session.
LITTLE FALLS will have a new $30, 000 hotel in the near future.

A TREATY with China prohibiting the immigration of Chinese laborers into this country has been concluded and is now before the senate for ratification.

ALBERT SCHEFFER has endorsed the platform of the Farmers' Alliance and in return they have endorsed him for governor. Endorsements do not always indicate an election.

The News has been outraged, and its venerable editor gets on his ear and howls. What for, do you ask?
Why simply because the DISPATCH mentioned the fact that he, the v. e., tried to make a speech at the rink recently, and failed to get farther than the fourth word. Truly life and its vicissitudes are galling. Take heart, Bro. Dewey, you will yet climb the ladder, though but slowly.

The Northwest Magazine for March contains a boom article for North St.
Paul, and uses an old cut of the Northern Pacific shops at Brainerd as the proposed shops of the Wisconsin Central railroad at that place. If that road proposes to build new shops we would advise them to improve on the old wooden structures that were burned up here some two years ago.
Verily the ways of the boomer are dive.

BRainerd correspondence Pioneer Press: Inspector Bivens, of the Northern Pacific, says there is a prospect of a large shortage in getting out railroad cars for that company.
The aggregate of contracts for the winter's ties for the eastern end of the line was a little over 1,100, 000 ties of all kinds, divided among E. C. Long & Co., St. Paul; J. C.
Flynn, Little Falls, and E. G. Holmes, Detroit. Of this only a little less than one-third have so far been hauled.
The ties of this year are of extra fine quality, under the increased rigorous specifications. When all things are considered, it would seem that there will be a large shortage.

CHAIRMAN E. E. CORLIS, of Fergus Falls, has called a meeting of the 5th district congressional committee to be held at Fergus Falls, April 12, to select a time and place for holding a district convention to elect two delegates to the republican national convention at Chicago. The members of the committee are: E. E. Corliss, Fergus Falls; F. B. Thompson, Brainerd; W. A. Gates, Sauk Centre; E.
Matson, Becker; S. G. Comstock, Moorhead; C. E. Ballantyne, Ver-dala; J. H. Rhodes, Little Falls; J. G.
McGrew, Crookston; H. C. Kendall, Duluth; Ole Bolsta, Ortonville; William Lee, Long Prairie; Tony Thor-son, Glenwood; Knute N. Melby, Ashby.

The democracy of Crow Wing county has at last spoken, and the republican party is no more, annihilated by one stroke as it were. It is dead and gone where the woodbine twines no more forever. Killed, and so easily!
And what a glorious way to die, the immortal pats of Crow Wing democracy. When this same party of freedom was yet in its infancy, democrats north and south under the leadership of Jeff Davis, for four years sought its life and most miserably failed. Now when it was supposed to be strong and vigorous, with one little blow dealt by the democracy of Crow Wing county, the republican party is knocked completely out of time. How shocking!

Thinks it Capital Fall.
In theory free trade is undoubtedly right. In practice, however, in this country, it is wrong.—Brainerd Dispatch.

The assertion that a right theory will not work right is exceedingly absurd, although it comes handy in supporting republican tariff doctrines.
But a right theory will always work rightly. Suggesting a practical experiment will demonstrate that a theory is wrong, but if a theory is right, it cannot fail in practice. The wrong theories are the only ones that fail. A right theory cannot fail.
Please paste that in your hat, Mr.
Dispatch.—Journal.

We beg to differ with the Journal and to still insist that it is often wrong to carry out to practice—a right theory. For instance, in theory, it is right for a man to take the life of his fellow man, but it is nevertheless wrong to carry out to practice—such a theory on all occasions. Indeed the meaning of the word theory itself contradicts and disproves the Journal's assertion that "if a theory is right it cannot fail in practice." Webster says that the word means speculation, scheme, a deduction from truths. According to the same authority to be theoretical means to be speculative and impractical. Therefore, one may be theoretically right and yet in practice he would find his theory, speculation, scheme or deduction, wholly wrong.
In other words a theory is nothing more or less than an impractical thing. If a thing is right in theory only it must necessarily fail in practice. So when we say that we are freemen, that we have a right to trade wherever and with whomsoever we please, and that we should be permitted to enjoy this right unrestricted by any law, the theory, the deduction, the impractical to be drawn therefrom is, that free trade, as the term is used, is right, but in our judgment it is right in theory only. In this country, in practice, for obvious reasons, tariff laws are not only right but highly necessary. Please put this in your pipe, gentle Friar, and spoke it.

Those Democratic Resolutions.

The resolutions of the democratic club of Crow Wing county are before us, and we find in them much that is really amusing and comical. They start out with the astounding and almost paralyzing statement that "the two great political parties are before the people." This is undoubtedly one of the things the people wanted to know, and now that they have been assured of the fact they feel easier.
It was feared that our little republican party had wandered off somewhere and got lost in the woods, but it isn't so. It is still before the people—at least so say the democrats of Crow Wing county. By these resolutions it further appears that the republican party during the late war only attempted the mastery of the disloyal people of the south. We had supposed all along that it not only attempted but really gained the mastery of all persons on both sides of the line who were not in favor of the perpetuity of the union. We see that we were mistaken, however, it was only an attempt. Again these Crow Wing democrats say that the republican party now stands convicted of being an audacious foe. This is really too bad, and we are sorry that the democrats of this county did not know before that the republican party was long ago convicted of being not only an audacious, but also a "sassy" and an ugly foe. Why, your southern brethren knew it more than twenty years ago, and with them it has become an old chestnut. Such a foe the democratic party never saw as the democratic party in those days. But here is a "whereas" that must have taxed the democratic club of Crow Wing county to a fearful extent—read it carefully:

"The republican party has by extravagant and vicious legislation caused former adherents to renounce their old allegiance and seek other alliances."
This is awful, but it is nevertheless true. It was over twenty years ago, right after the great democratic rebellion was put down, that the 13th 14th and 15th amendments and the reconstruction acts were passed—things necessary to be done in order to bring about a settled state of affairs in the south—and yet these are the extravagant and vicious bits of legislation which at that time drove many democrats out of the old party and to seek new allegiances. And it was this kind of legislation that gained for the republican party the honor, glory and admiration of the world. It was awfully vicious, though, and Crow Wing county democrats can not forget it.

They next "whereas," these Crow Wing county democrats do, that the democratic party on resuming official control of the government, has actually and truly recognized the needs of the country. How wonderfully magnanimous these democratic brethren are, indeed, and how thankful we ought to be that they have recognized our needs. Considering the manner in which they once lost control of the government it is truly remarkable. It is so unlike anything they have ever before been guilty of, that they must mention it. It is true they didn't say much about it, but then assuming control of a government they once loved so well is quite a delicate matter to handle, and we can therefore pardon them for what they omitted.
After "whereas" that G. Cleveland, Esq., is the greatest man on earth, and that there is nothing worth having outside of the democratic party, these Crow Wing democrats resolve that the president above mentioned and set forth, is worthy the hearty endorsement of everybody —and there they stop. They don't say a word about the battle flag episode, and don't mention the pension bills he has vetoed; not a word about his free trade message do they say; and they didn't mention the bloody shirt either, which latter fact is greatly to their credit, because if there is anything we dislike to see it is the flaunting of this famous old garment.

A Way Found.
The way to reduce the surplus is to pension all disabled soldiers and appropriate the balance of the surplus to improvements.—Picket Guard.

It Will Attract Them.
Brainerd is making a liberal offer to manufacturers to locate there. They offer mills free water power. This ought to attract legitimate enterprises.
—Duluth Herald.

The Minneapolis Star continues to insist that G. G. Hartley is an aspirant for Fifth district congressional honors.
Of course the Star does not know what it is talking about. Mr. Hartley is too busy in his work of homing Duluth to listen to the buzzing of any congressional bee.—Herald.

Important Tax Case.
Judge Sleeper on Saturday last decided an important tax case against the N. P. R. R. Co. in favor of Aikin county, sustaining the demand of Duluth to listen to the buzzing of any
congressional bee.—Herald.

The Indian Gaye Bonds.
MOOREHEAD, Minn., March 27.—An Indian named Sah, Gwan-Dug was brought before United States Commissioner Tillotson to-day charged with introducing whisky on the White Earth reservation, and given a hearing. He acknowledged his guilt and was bound over in the sum of $250 to the October term of the United States district court at St. Paul. He furnished bonds for his appearance.

The Irish Vote.

I hold myself as much a man as any in the land, I know I have a heart to feel, a brain to understand, and I know I have a right to be heard.
And all the Irish vote, gentlemen, is note:
What is the Irish vote?
The name implies some mass compact, by outer force controlled.
That can be shifted right and left, perhaps be bought and sold.
To the Irish vote, I mean to use a lesson learned by rote?
Others say, "No, I mean to use a lesson learned by heart."
Is that the Irish vote?
Or are we all so very wise none can deceive our right?
Or are we very foolish grown we never vote aright?
Are we so large stowed as some politician's boat?
The answer, all charges paid:
Is that the Irish vote?

Our grandees in green Erin's side were reckoned proper men, and yet in ninety-eight they differed now and then.
To say "My dear friend, I mean to use a lesson learned by heart," there were no Irish there?
The other side thought them in?" No! as the wise man went.
E. O. H. thought them in for all.
So let the Irish vote.

The Fergus Falls Murderer.

Two weeks from next Friday Holong is to be hung. The preparations are nearly all completed and everything that can be done without making it public has been done. The rope has arrived and has been stowed away out of sight. The carpenter will have the gallows ready in a few days and it will be tested to see that it is all right. Holong does not seem to be unduly concerned, and smokes and reads his time away. He is under constant watch night and day. He is frequently visited by the ministers and seems to be more impressed with what they say than he did before death was certain. He had quite a number of religious books in his cell.
He seems in better spirits than he was and sleeps and eats well. A few days ago Sheriff Brandenburger received a letter from a St. Paul lawyer named Dry asking the names of Holong's attorneys. He was referred to P. O.
Noben and wrote him that he had the law points which would save Holong, which he would give for $50. No-ben said the money would be paid if Holong was saved, but nothing has been heard from the attorney yet.—

Will Choke Ames Off.

Dr. Ames is to be politically killed for his ambition. That is the order.
To this end the leaders are nearly all united again. The argument against him is that he is a man of no principle, and that he is a man who is to be asked to abandon a man who has led it a great deal nearer success than he has ever been before in the history of the state. Dr. Ames won the vote which raised the hopes of his party high enough to make them think Minnesota a doubtful state. It is not likely he could ever pull such a the farm of Mr. Eoff, on Duck river, in the county, Tennessee, a few days ago, a range rumbling noise was heard. The noise subsided Mr. Eoff found that the noise came from the house, that chunks of rocks, weighing ten tons, were shattered in many instances, and others they were split in twain. There is nothing to indicate that it was other than an upheaval and explosion of some kind, down element from ground.

The other evening just at dusk a Brookfield, Conn., farmer, as he walked from the barn to the house, heard a pet kitten that was following him give a squeal of distress. He whirled around and saw a big fox making off with the kitten in its mouth, and in spite of the efforts of the farmer it got away with its victim.

The barb wire industry is in a fair way of being overdone. According to the Iron Age there are forty-four manufacturers in this country who own 2,191 machines. It is estimated that in 200 working days, running single turns, they will make 300,000 tons of wire. The present consumption ranges from 130,000 to 150,000 tons a year.

An Eastern statistician has estimated that 3,000,000 men in this country get shaved at a barber shop three times a week. He says that this means an expenditure of 30 cents a week, or $15.60 a year for each man, or for the 3,000,000 $15,600,000 annually. To this he should add a considerable sum to account for the numerous 15-cent shaves—the ruling price in the West.

Of 6000 tornadoes of which record has been made in the United States, not more than seventy-five were east of the Allegheny mountains. The warm air temporarily driven from the Gulf of Mexico up the Mississippi Valley is caught by the polar wind, and driven in gyratory tornadoes across the prairies. The Appalachian range serves on the Atlantic slope as a barrier against storms of that sort.

Prof. Trent, of the John Hopkins university, has discovered that "Trusts" are not new, but on the contrary flourished like a green bay tree in ancient Greece and Rome. There were corners in the olive oil industry, combinations in the iron market, which were managed much in the same way as the modern institution, all of which is suggestive, as trusts and other combinations and monopolies immediately preceded the downfall of the Roman empire.

Baltimore has a new society. It is called a pig party. Everybody at a party is required to draw, with a pencil on white paper, two pies. The drawing must be made without taking the pencil off the paper. The second drawing must be made with the eyes blindfolded, after which the paper is torn signed. The fun comes in a comparison of the drawings. The place, and the prize in competition is given to the draughtsman of the best pie. The person who makes the worst drawing is called the pig.

There is a suspicion at Washington that Mormons are up to mischief. Instead of working for the admission of Utah, they have dropped that, and commenced lobbying for New Mexico. The purpose is to secure statehood for New Mexico and then to control the state in Mormon interests and to make New Mexico the refuge of the polygamists who acknowledge their inability to defeat or resist the operations of the stringent anti-polygamy laws. The Mormons are now in a place, and the prize in competition is given to the draughtsman of the best pie. The person who makes the worst drawing is called the pig.

Mrs. Anna Fields, who died at Camden a short time ago, is said to have been gifted with a mysterious power of second sight for some time before her death. She not only told her daughter of the illness of several relatives hundreds of miles off, but on the night of the double tragedy near herself in the house she raised her self in bed and grew gray with crying, "There's a man and a woman, and a carriage near the City Hall, something has happened and there is great confusion." It was sometime before the daughter could get her quiet, and the next morning her daughters were struck with astonishment on reading of the double murder which took place at the hour their mother spoke of the affair.

The eucalyptus or rubber tree of Australia has been introduced into California, where it thrives and grows very rapidly. There are several varieties of this tree, one of which, the eucalyptus globulus, reaches in Western Australia the enormous height of 300 feet. The eucalyptus callosa sometimes attains the height of 400 feet. These, however, are both eclipsed by a tall giant in Victoria, a eucalyptus amygdalina, which measures 480 feet. In contradiction to these monsters is the dwarf eucalyptus, called the nallee, a small tree only 15 or 20 feet high. The stems and branches often are very slender and the foliage close and overlapping. As it grows in infumid conditions it becomes a very serious matter to lose it, and a traveler's estate would be somewhat precarious in such a case.

CHIEF JUSTICE WAITE DEAD.

He Suddenly Expires Before His Session. Illness is Generally Known—His Last Moments—Touching Consideration for His Wife.

WASHINGTON, Special Telegram, March 23.—Hon. Morrison R. Waite, chief justice of the United States supreme court, died suddenly at 10 o'clock this morning. He was 71 years of age. "I feel easier, I think I will go to sleep," were his last words, spoken a few minutes before he died. His illness, which began about a week ago, was a typhoid fever, and he died in bed, and almost without the knowledge of the professional nurse in attendance he entered upon the sleep from which there is no waking. The cause of his death was probably typhoid pneumonia, although that statement cannot be made upon the authority of the attending physician, who said that the illness was supposed to be serious, and then the gravity of the case was not considered.

There is beginning to be unusual, almost unprecedented, activity among the Adventists, both of the First Day and Seventh Day classes. Both believe that the wind up time, the difference being the First Day Adventists fix the date, whereas the Seventh Day Adventists do not, is not far off. Among the Cincinnati First Day Adventists tradesmen have sent their bills out. They may be sure that they balanced all accounts, and among them all ready for the account.

Howard, Wis., reported in dispatches from Dakota to have married Chaska, a Sioux chief, and that he was to be married from his daughter dated March 11, announcing that she was to be married to the Sioux chief. The marriage was reported in the Episcopal church. Mr. Campbell is employed by the bureau of Indian affairs and is stationed at the Indian office. In a letter of the same date received from Mr. Campbell, that gentleman says that he is married to a Sioux chief, and that he is to be married from his daughter dated March 11, announcing that she was to be married to the Sioux chief.

A pointman who predicted Mr. Lannan's appointment as associate justice of the supreme court long before it was actually made, and who predicted that the state ment that Mr. Bayard could have had that appointment had he desired it. He predicted that Mr. Bayard would be the chief justice, and will accept it. There is a rumor from another source that Mr. Bayard is to be appointed chief justice, and will accept it. There is a rumor from another source that Mr. Bayard is to be appointed chief justice, and will accept it.

The senate investigation of the Chipewia time and Wisconsin is in progress with Agent Gregory on the stand. He was asked why he had shown such decided enmity toward the Calligans, he stated that he had been told by the Calligans that they were dishonest, and had been told by the Calligans that they were dishonest, and had been told by the Calligans that they were dishonest.
